

INDIVISIBLE:

Imagination Dialogue

Anvil Theatre
777 Columbia St, New Westminster, BC
Monday August 8th 2022

NEW MEDIA
GALLERY

Join accomplished researchers in physics and new media, Dr. Laura Marks and Dr. Monika Stachura, in an in-person dialogue moderated by Sharad Kharé.

Inspired by the Indivisible exhibition at the New Media Gallery, which brings together Arts at CERN residents and other artists working in the scientific realm, the discussion will ponder the “unseen processes constantly at work in the world around us” and reveal further intersections of art and science introduced in the exhibition.

Dr. Laura Marks

New Media Scholar,
Simon Fraser University

Dr. Monika Stachura

Senior Research Scientist,
TRIUMF

Sharad Kharé

Moderator
Co-founder of Human
Biography

Event Schedule

3:30 - 3:50 Welcomes and Introductions

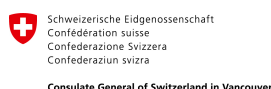

4:00 - 5:00 Imagination Dialogue

5:00 - 6:00 Tour of Indivisible

Register in Advance here

Innovation Fest brings together arts and cultural organizations, science and technology institutions, and other networks to enrich the international innovation ecosystem.

Arts at CERN

